Quartet, All College Graduates, to Enter Seminaries; Three Others of Congregation Licensed

Four members of the South Norfolk Baptist Church, two of them brothers, were ordained into the ministry at a special service yesterday afternoon. They were the first members of the congregation to be ordained in the 57-year history of the church. Those whose ordination became official with the laying on of hands ceremony, performed by eight ministers, were Mark W. Alexander, Jr., of 1405 Ohio Street; James W. Russ and William C. Russ, brothers, of 1217 Chesapeake Avenue, and Samuel W. Tatem, of 915 Wilson Road.

Each of the young men graduated from college in June and will enter theological seminaries next month. Tatem will attend the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky., while the others will study at the Southwestern Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Tex.

Three Others Licensed

Scheduled to follow these young men into the ministry are three other members of the congregation, who already have been licensed by the church to prepare for the ministry, but will not be ordained until they complete their college education.

They are George Wollett, Jr., a student at Wake Forest College, and Edward Boyd and Horace Twine, both students at the Uni-

Larchmont Baptist Church, gave the charge to the candidates.

The Rev. George Tyler Terrell, pastor of Merrimack Park Baptist Church, preached the sermon. Other participants were the Rev. H. A. Hardwick, pastor of Bay View Baptist Church, who offered the invocation, and Dr. Herman Stevens, of Campbell College, who pronounced the benediction.

Special music was provided by the church choir.
