

Thirdly, it was because of social reasons. He was a member of a corrupt social order. And so far as he knew, he would not become a Christian. And if he did become a Christian - he would be looked upon and frowned upon. He had rather associate with those who were immoral.

Fourth place, he quenched the Spirit. He turned his back on the admonition of Paul. And he became the victim of lust. Paul failed to lay hold of salvation.

Now Felix and his hindrances may be yours. Or, you may have some sins that you know about. Why are you not willing to turn your life over to him. Search your heart and your soul.

Will you say to the preacher tonight - go thy way for this time. When I have a convenient season - I will call for thee.

Are you saying tonight with Felix that you have too many things going on. That you are too busy, to become righteous. He was very busy - absorbed in the work of the land. And I wonder what your situation is this hour. Do you see yourself in this picture. You are under conviction. Is it because you love money. Pride, for some person.

The convenient season of sin is the Devil's potent weapon. Right now you are under conviction - you desire to respond. The Devil comes and he says, wait for a convenient season. Go thy way for this time. Now this time is God's time. The convenient season is Satan's time. Therefore, today, if you will hear his voice. Harden not. Psalm. 95:7.
